

I want to recommend a vote against the effort to consolidate ownership of media. Diversity, not consolidation is the way to strengthen democracy, and allow expression of a wide range of opinions. We have learned this in many other venues - agriculture, investments, international politics, and I would hope you would vote to continue, or preferably expand media ownership in the interest of greater diversity.